The Centre for the EU Education and Youth Programmes (Turkish National Agency) has been implementing the EU Education and Youth Programmes in Turkey since 2003. Being responsible for executing the Lifelong Learning and Youth Programmes, it helps developing the intercultural dialogue, strengthening the intercultural cooperation, fighting against xenophobia. So far, more than 3000 projects have been implemented and almost 40.000 individuals have already benefited from the EU Education and Youth Programmes throughout Turkey.

Grundtvig programme supports adult training through multilateral learning partnership projects among adult learning institutions and study visits and exchange activities of trainers and decision makers to enable information and experience sharing in the area of adult training with European partners.
